

Online Exhibit

Chevy Chase Reads: The Chevy Chase Literary Club

George Dalzell was a member of the Chevy Chase Literary Club

George Walton Dalzell (1877-1953). George Dalzell was an estate lawyer whose father was Superintendent of Dead Letters for the U. S. Post Office. A life-long bachelor who loved to travel, he was very active in the Chevy Chase Literary Club and lived at 5 West Irving Street.

5 West Irving Street, 1993. CCHS 2008.226.10.